The grass and weeds have been removed from the sidewalk around the vacant corner between the Witness building and the Montezuma Hotel.

See our line of Men's Shoes before buying. DAVIDSON & VANECHOP.

Mrs. W. M. Jones presented her liege lord with a fine baby girl yesterday morning. Dr. Frederick was the waiting physician. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

Something nice for dinner tomorrow at Misses Richards & Hallett's.

The new armory is beginning to assume quite the proportions of a building. They began putting the tin on the roof yesterday, and notwithstanding the rain it will soon be completed.

Pants to measure, $4, guarantee a fit. DAVIDSON & VANECHOP.

Parents, the Ocala Business College has been organized for your boys and girls. Call and arrange for their attendance. Ocala Business College, L. M. Hatton, president.

A WOOD MINE.

Mining for wood is a novel industry.

Yet it is carried on to a considerable extent in one of the Chinese provinces.

A former pine forest became buried by some seismic disturbance and is now about 40 feet below the ground.

Some of the trees in this buried forest are three feet in diameter, and they are dug up by the natives and used for making coffins and similar articles.

The wood from these trees is practically indestructible.

SAILOR HATS!

Two cases just received. "All the latest styles" at Mrs. C. A. BROWN'S.

A PLEASANT TOUR.

Miss Birdie Badger writes that she is having a royal good time visiting Niagara Falls, Toronto and other famous resorts in the north.

She is traveling in company with a pleasant party of tourists.

A few White and Colored Vests. We are closing out at cost. DAVIDSON & VANECHOP.

LOOK OUT!
